Acme Health Insurance, Inc.

Employee Handbook

Building a Better Workplace Through Trust, Innovation, and Collaboration

---

Document ID
EMP-HB-2026

Document Version
2.3

Effective Date
January 1, 2026

Last Updated
July 15, 2026

Document Classification
Internal Use Only

Document Owner
Human Resources Department

Approved By
Chief Human Resources Officer

Applies To
Employees, Contractors, Interns, and Authorized Personnel

Company Statement

At Acme Health Insurance, Inc., our mission is to improve healthcare accessibility through innovative insurance solutions, exceptional service, and responsible management of sensitive information.

This Employee Handbook provides guidance on workplace expectations, employee responsibilities, benefits, company policies, and compliance requirements.

Employees are expected to understand and follow the policies described in this handbook while contributing to a respectful, secure, and inclusive workplace.

Important Notice

This handbook is a company policy reference document and does not create an employment contract or guarantee employment for any specific period.

Policies may be updated periodically based on:

- Business requirements
- Regulatory changes
- Legal requirements
- Operational improvements

Employees are responsible for reviewing the latest approved version available through the HR Self-Service Portal.

Document Information

Field	Value
Organization	Acme Health Insurance, Inc.
Document Type	Employee Handbook
Version	2.3
Status	Active
Review Frequency	Annual
Document Owner	Human Resources Department
Approval Authority	Chief Human Resources Officer

Confidentiality Notice

This document contains confidential company information intended only for authorized employees and business partners.

Unauthorized reproduction, distribution, modification, or disclosure of this document is prohibited.

Acme Health Insurance, Inc.

Employee Handbook

Document ID: EMP-HB-2026
Version: 2.3
Effective Date: January 1, 2026
Last Updated: July 15, 2026
Classification: Internal Use Only
Prepared By: Human Resources Department
Approved By: Chief Human Resources Officer

Revision History

Version	Date	Description	Approved By
1.0	January 2024	Initial release of Employee Handbook	CHRO
1.5	July 2024	Added Remote Work Policy	CHRO
2.0	January 2025	Updated Benefits Program	CHRO
2.2	January 2026	Added Information Security and AI Usage Policy	CIO
2.3	July 2026	Updated PTO and Expense Reimbursement Policy	CHRO

Purpose of This Handbook

This handbook provides employees with guidance regarding workplace policies, employee benefits, company expectations, and compliance requirements.

The handbook is designed to help employees understand:

- Employment policies and responsibilities
- Available benefits and programs
- Workplace conduct expectations
- Security and compliance obligations

- Available employee resources

Company policies may change based on business requirements, legal updates, or regulatory changes. Employees should always refer to the latest version available through the HR Self-Service Portal.

Document Scope

This handbook applies to:

- Full-Time Employees
- Part-Time Employees
- Temporary Employees
- Interns
- Contract Employees where applicable

Certain policies, including medical benefits, retirement plans, and paid leave programs, may have eligibility requirements. Employees should review each policy section for specific eligibility rules.

Related Resources

Resource	Purpose	Location
Employee Benefits Portal	Medical, dental, vision, and retirement information	https://benefits.acmehealth.com
HR Self-Service Portal	PTO requests, payroll, and employee records	https://portal.acmehealth.com
Employee Learning Center	Training and certification programs	https://training.acmehealth.com
Information Security Portal	Security policies and cybersecurity resources	https://security.acmehealth.com

Welcome to Acme Health Insurance

Welcome to Acme Health Insurance, Inc.

We are committed to improving healthcare access through innovative insurance solutions, exceptional customer service, and responsible management of sensitive member information.

Every employee contributes to our success. Whether you work in claims, customer service, technology, analytics, finance, compliance, or operations, your work supports our mission and impacts the members we serve.

This handbook provides guidance on workplace expectations, employee benefits, company policies, and compliance responsibilities. Employees should review this information carefully and refer to the handbook when questions arise.

Company policies may change due to business needs, regulatory requirements, or operational updates. The latest approved version will always be available through the HR Self-Service Portal.

Employment Relationship

Acme Health Insurance, Inc. is committed to maintaining a professional, respectful, and productive workplace. Employment decisions are based on business needs, qualifications, performance, experience, and organizational requirements.

The company values transparency, fairness, and consistent application of workplace policies. Employees are expected to perform their responsibilities professionally and comply with all applicable company policies, procedures, and legal requirements.

Nothing in this handbook creates a contractual guarantee of employment for any specific period. Employment relationships are governed by applicable laws and company policies.

Employment Classifications

Employees are categorized based on their work schedule, eligibility for benefits, and employment status.

Classification	Description	Benefit Eligibility
Full-Time Employee	Employee regularly scheduled to work 40 hours per week	Eligible for company benefits according to plan rules
Part-Time Employee	Employee scheduled less than 30 hours per week	Limited benefits based on eligibility requirements

Classification	Description	Benefit Eligibility
Temporary Employee	Employee hired for a specific project, assignment, or limited duration	Generally not eligible for standard employee benefits
Intern	Student or recent graduate participating in a structured learning program	Eligibility depends on internship agreement
Contractor	External worker providing specialized services under contract	Benefits determined by contracting agreement

Employees should contact Human Resources if they have questions regarding their employment classification.

New Employee Orientation

All new employees must complete the company onboarding process before beginning regular job responsibilities.

The onboarding program introduces employees to:

- Company values and mission
- Workplace policies
- Benefits enrollment
- Security requirements
- Compliance responsibilities
- Required training programs

New employees must complete mandatory training within the required timeframe established by Human Resources.

Failure to complete required onboarding activities may delay access to company systems or business applications.

Introductory Employment Period

New employees typically complete an introductory employment period during their first 90 days of employment.

During this period, employees are expected to:

- Learn job responsibilities

- Complete required training
- Understand company policies
- Demonstrate acceptable performance standards

Managers provide feedback throughout the introductory period and may recommend additional training or support when needed.

Successful completion of the introductory period does not change the employee's obligation to comply with company policies or performance expectations.

Equal Employment Opportunity

Acme Health Insurance, Inc. is committed to providing equal employment opportunities and maintaining a workplace free from unlawful discrimination.

Employment decisions are made without regard to legally protected characteristics, including:

- Race
- Color
- Religion
- National origin
- Sex
- Pregnancy status
- Age
- Disability status
- Genetic information
- Veteran status
- Other characteristics protected by applicable law

The company applies equal opportunity principles throughout the employment lifecycle, including:

- Recruiting

- Hiring
- Compensation
- Promotions
- Training
- Performance evaluations
- Disciplinary actions
- Termination decisions

Employees who believe they have experienced discrimination should report concerns through available reporting channels.

Workplace Accommodation

Acme Health Insurance provides reasonable workplace accommodations for qualified employees when required by applicable laws.

Employees requesting accommodations should contact Human Resources and provide sufficient information to evaluate the request.

Examples of accommodations may include:

- Modified work schedules
- Workplace accessibility adjustments
- Assistive technology
- Changes to workplace procedures

Requests are reviewed confidentially and handled according to applicable legal requirements.

Anti-Harassment Policy

Acme Health Insurance maintains a workplace where employees are treated with dignity and respect.

Harassment of any kind is prohibited, including verbal, physical, visual, or electronic conduct that creates an intimidating, hostile, or offensive work environment.

Examples of prohibited conduct include:

- Offensive comments or jokes

- Unwanted advances
- Threatening behavior
- Repeated inappropriate communication
- Sharing offensive materials

Employees who experience or witness harassment should report concerns promptly to:

Reporting Option	Contact
Direct Manager	Employee's assigned supervisor
Human Resources	HR Service Portal
Ethics Hotline	Confidential reporting system
Compliance Office	Compliance reporting channel

Retaliation against employees who report concerns in good faith is prohibited.

Code of Business Conduct

Acme Health Insurance expects all employees to conduct business ethically, responsibly, and professionally.

Employees must:

- Act with honesty and integrity
- Protect confidential information
- Follow company policies
- Avoid conflicts of interest
- Treat colleagues and customers respectfully
- Comply with applicable laws and regulations

Professional Workplace Behavior

Employees are expected to maintain professional behavior when interacting with:

- Coworkers

- Customers
- Members
- Vendors
- Business partners

Professional conduct includes:

- Respectful communication
- Appropriate workplace language
- Responsible use of company resources
- Cooperation with team members

Unprofessional behavior that negatively impacts the workplace may result in corrective action.

Conflicts of Interest

Employees must avoid situations where personal interests conflict, or appear to conflict, with company responsibilities.

Examples include:

- Accepting inappropriate gifts from vendors
- Using company information for personal benefit
- Participating in decisions involving personal financial interests
- Performing outside work that interferes with job responsibilities

Employees must disclose potential conflicts to their manager or Human Resources.

Employee Responsibilities

Every employee is responsible for:

Responsibility	Expected Behavior
Policy Compliance	Follow company rules and procedures

Responsibility	Expected Behavior
Security Awareness	Protect company and customer information
Workplace Conduct	Maintain professional behavior
Performance	Meet job expectations and goals
Reporting	Report policy violations or security concerns

Employees are encouraged to ask questions whenever they are uncertain about company expectations or procedures.

Compensation and Payroll

Acme Health Insurance, Inc. is committed to providing competitive compensation programs that recognize employee contributions, skills, experience, and performance.

Compensation decisions are based on several factors, including:

- Job responsibilities
- Market conditions
- Employee experience
- Individual performance
- Internal equity
- Business requirements

Employees are encouraged to discuss compensation-related questions with their manager or Human Resources.

Payroll Schedule

Employees are paid according to the company's established payroll schedule.

Payroll Frequency	Pay Period	Payment Method
Biweekly	14-day pay cycle	Direct deposit
Payroll Processing	Completed before scheduled payday	Automated payroll system
Pay Statements	Available electronically	HR Self-Service Portal

Employees are responsible for reviewing their pay statements and reporting any discrepancies to Payroll within 30 days.

Time Reporting Requirements

Employees must accurately record all hours worked using the approved company timekeeping system.

Employees must:

- Submit timesheets before deadlines
- Record actual hours worked
- Report corrections promptly
- Obtain manager approval when required

Falsifying time records may result in disciplinary action.

Overtime Policy

Non-exempt employees may be eligible for overtime compensation according to applicable laws and company policy.

Overtime must be approved by the employee's manager before additional hours are worked.

Employees should not work overtime without approval unless there is an emergency situation requiring immediate action.

Salary Reviews

Performance and compensation reviews are conducted periodically.

Salary adjustments may consider:

- Performance results
- Market benchmarking
- Promotion or increased responsibilities
- Company financial conditions

A performance review does not automatically guarantee a salary increase.

Employee Benefits

Acme Health Insurance provides benefit programs designed to support employees and their families.

Benefits may vary depending on employment classification, eligibility requirements, enrollment deadlines, and plan rules.

Employees can access current benefit information through:

https://benefits.acmehealth.com

Health Insurance Benefits

Eligible employees may enroll in medical, dental, and vision coverage.

Benefit Type	Description	Enrollment Period
Medical Insurance	Healthcare coverage including preventive care and medical services	New hire and annual enrollment
Dental Insurance	Preventive and restorative dental services	New hire and annual enrollment
Vision Insurance	Eye exams, lenses, and frames	New hire and annual enrollment
Flexible Spending Account	Healthcare expense reimbursement program	Annual enrollment

Employees must complete enrollment within the required timeframe. Failure to enroll may result in delayed coverage.

Medical Plan Options

Employees may select from available medical plans based on personal and family needs.

Plans may include:

- Employee-only coverage
- Employee plus spouse coverage
- Employee plus child coverage
- Family coverage

Detailed plan documents, provider networks, and coverage limitations are available through the Benefits Portal.

Retirement Savings Plan

Acme Health Insurance offers eligible employees access to a retirement savings program.

The retirement program allows employees to:

- Contribute a portion of eligible compensation
- Receive company matching contributions according to plan rules
- Manage investment selections through the retirement provider

Employees should review retirement plan documents for contribution limits and eligibility requirements.

Paid Time Off Policy

Acme Health Insurance recognizes the importance of rest, personal responsibilities, and maintaining a healthy work-life balance.

Eligible employees receive paid time off (PTO) that may be used for vacation, personal needs, appointments, and other approved absences.

PTO Accrual Schedule

Employee Service	Annual PTO Allocation
Less than 2 years	15 business days
2–5 years	20 business days
More than 5 years	25 business days

PTO accrual begins on the employee's start date and is tracked through the HR Self-Service Portal.

PTO Request Process

Employees should submit PTO requests through:

https://portal.acmehealth.com

Employees should provide reasonable notice when requesting planned time off.

Managers review requests based on:

- Business requirements
- Team availability
- Project deadlines
- Previously approved absences

Submission of a PTO request does not guarantee approval.

PTO Carryover

Employees may carry over unused PTO according to company policy and applicable state requirements.

Employee Category	Maximum Carryover
Standard Employees	40 hours
Employees in states requiring additional carryover	Based on applicable law

Unused PTO exceeding allowed limits may expire at the end of the policy year.

Holiday Policy

Acme Health Insurance observes company holidays to allow employees time for personal, cultural, and national observances.

The annual holiday calendar is published through the HR Self-Service Portal.

Typical company holidays include:

- New Year's Day
- Memorial Day
- Independence Day
- Labor Day
- Thanksgiving Day
- Christmas Day

Holiday schedules may vary based on business operations.

Employees required to work on company holidays should follow department-specific scheduling procedures.

Leave of Absence

Acme Health Insurance provides various leave programs to support employees during important personal and family events.

Available leave programs may include:

- Medical leave
- Family leave
- Military leave
- Bereavement leave
- Jury duty leave
- Personal leave

Eligibility and approval requirements depend on applicable laws and company policies.

Medical Leave

Employees requiring extended medical leave should contact Human Resources as soon as possible.

Employees may be required to provide supporting documentation from a healthcare provider when permitted by law.

Family Leave

Eligible employees may request leave for qualifying family-related events.

Examples include:

- Birth or adoption of a child
- Serious health condition of a family member
- Other legally protected circumstances

Employees should contact Human Resources to determine eligibility and required documentation.

Attendance and Work Schedule Policy

Acme Health Insurance depends on employees maintaining reliable attendance and communicating schedule changes appropriately.

Employees are expected to:

- Arrive on time and ready to work
- Complete scheduled responsibilities
- Notify their manager when unable to work
- Follow department-specific scheduling requirements
- Record working hours accurately

Consistent attendance supports team collaboration, customer service, and operational effectiveness.

Standard Work Schedule

Most full-time employees work a standard schedule of 40 hours per week. Specific schedules may vary depending on department requirements, business operations, and customer needs.

Work Arrangement	Description
Standard Schedule	Regular weekday schedule assigned by department
Flexible Schedule	Adjusted working hours approved by manager
Shift Schedule	Assigned hours based on operational requirements
On-Call Schedule	Availability required outside normal hours when assigned

Employees should coordinate schedule changes with their manager before making adjustments.

Absence Reporting

Employees who cannot report to work must notify their manager as soon as possible.

Employees should provide:

- Reason for absence
- Expected return date

- Any urgent work information
- Required documentation when applicable

Failure to report an absence according to company procedures may be considered an unauthorized absence.

Remote Work Policy

Acme Health Insurance supports flexible work arrangements when business needs allow.

Remote work eligibility depends on:

- Job responsibilities
- Security requirements
- Employee performance
- Manager approval
- Department needs

Remote work is considered a workplace arrangement and not a permanent employee benefit.

Remote Work Expectations

Employees working remotely must:

- Maintain a professional workspace
- Protect confidential information
- Follow cybersecurity requirements
- Remain available during scheduled working hours
- Attend required meetings

Employees must use approved company devices and applications when accessing company systems remotely.

Remote Work Security Requirements

Remote employees must follow these requirements:

Requirement	Policy
Network Access	Use approved secure networks or company VPN

Requirement	Policy
Device Security	Use company-managed devices when required
Data Protection	Do not store company information on personal devices
Meetings	Use approved video conferencing tools
Physical Security	Protect screens and documents from unauthorized access

Additional requirements are available in the Information Security Policy.

Performance Management

Acme Health Insurance believes continuous feedback helps employees grow professionally and contribute effectively.

The performance management program focuses on:

- Goal setting
- Regular feedback
- Skill development
- Career growth
- Recognition of achievements

Managers are responsible for providing employees with clear expectations and timely feedback.

Performance Review Process

Performance reviews are conducted periodically according to company guidelines.

The review process includes:

Stage	Description
Goal Setting	Employee and manager establish performance objectives
Progress Discussions	Regular conversations about accomplishments and challenges
Self Assessment	Employee reflects on performance and development

Stage	Description
Manager Review	Manager evaluates results and behaviors
Final Discussion	Review results and future goals are discussed

Performance ratings may influence compensation decisions, promotions, and development opportunities.

Performance Expectations

Employees are evaluated based on:

- Quality of work
- Achievement of goals
- Collaboration
- Communication
- Customer focus
- Compliance with company policies

Employees who need additional support may receive coaching, training, or performance improvement plans.

Career Development and Training

Acme Health Insurance encourages employees to continuously develop their skills and knowledge.

Development opportunities may include:

- Technical training
- Leadership programs
- Professional certifications
- Mentorship programs
- Internal learning resources

Employees can access available courses through:

https://training.acmehealth.com

Required Training

Certain training programs are mandatory based on job responsibilities.

Examples include:

- Information security awareness
- Privacy and data protection
- Workplace conduct
- Regulatory compliance
- Safety training

Employees must complete required training within assigned deadlines.

Failure to complete mandatory training may result in restricted system access or corrective action.

Promotion and Internal Mobility

Acme Health Insurance encourages employees to explore career opportunities within the organization.

Employees interested in internal positions should:

- Review available opportunities
- Discuss career goals with their manager
- Maintain strong performance
- Meet position requirements

Promotion Considerations

Promotion decisions consider:

Factor	Description
Performance	Consistent achievement of job expectations

Factor	Description
Experience	Relevant knowledge and skills
Leadership	Ability to influence and support others
Business Need	Availability of organizational opportunities
Qualifications	Required education, certifications, or experience

Meeting minimum qualifications does not guarantee promotion.

Workplace Communication

Effective communication is essential for collaboration and business success.

Employees should use professional and respectful communication in all interactions.

Approved communication tools may include:

- Company email
- Collaboration platforms
- Video conferencing
- Internal messaging systems
- Business applications

Email and Messaging Guidelines

Employees should:

- Use appropriate professional language
- Protect confidential information
- Verify recipients before sending sensitive information
- Avoid sharing restricted company data

Employees should not use company communication systems for harassment, discrimination, or unauthorized business activities.

Information Security Policy

Acme Health Insurance protects sensitive information belonging to employees, customers, healthcare members, and business partners.

Employees play an important role in maintaining information security.

Protected information includes:

- Personal information
- Healthcare information
- Financial information
- Customer records
- Business confidential information

Employees must follow security policies when accessing, storing, processing, or sharing company information.

Security Responsibilities

Employees must:

Responsibility	Required Action
Account Security	Protect usernames and passwords
Data Protection	Handle sensitive information appropriately
Incident Reporting	Report suspected security issues
Device Protection	Secure company equipment
Access Control	Use only authorized systems

Security violations may result in disciplinary action, including termination.

Security Incident Reporting

Employees must immediately report:

- Lost or stolen devices
- Suspected unauthorized access

- Phishing attempts
- Accidental data disclosure
- Malware infections

Security incidents should be reported through:

https://security.acmehealth.com

Employees should not attempt to investigate security incidents independently unless instructed by the Information Security team.

Technology and Acceptable Use Policy

Acme Health Insurance provides technology resources to support business operations and employee productivity. Company systems must be used responsibly, securely, and primarily for authorized business purposes.

Technology resources include:

- Company computers and mobile devices
- Email systems
- Internal applications
- Cloud platforms
- Network connections
- Collaboration tools
- Data storage systems

Employees must follow all technology policies when accessing company resources.

Acceptable Use Requirements

Employees may use company technology for approved business activities and limited personal use when it does not interfere with job responsibilities.

Employees must not:

- Install unauthorized software
- Disable security controls
- Share account credentials

- Access inappropriate content
- Circumvent company security systems
- Use company systems for illegal activities

Activity	Allowed	Approval Required
Business communication	Yes	No
Personal email during breaks	Limited	No
Installing software	No	IT approval
Accessing confidential data	Yes	Authorized access required
External data sharing	No	Manager and security approval

Artificial Intelligence Usage Policy

Acme Health Insurance recognizes the value of artificial intelligence tools while maintaining appropriate controls to protect company information.

Employees may use approved AI tools for:

- Productivity improvement
- Research assistance
- Document drafting
- Code assistance
- Data analysis support

Employees must not enter confidential information, protected health information, customer data, or proprietary company information into unauthorized AI systems.

Approved AI Usage Guidelines

Employees using AI tools must:

- Review generated content for accuracy
- Validate information before business use
- Protect confidential information

- Follow security requirements
- Maintain human oversight

AI-generated content must not replace professional judgment or required review processes.

Confidential Information Policy

Acme Health Insurance manages sensitive information belonging to members, employees, healthcare providers, and business partners.

Employees have a responsibility to protect confidential information during and after employment.

Types of Confidential Information

Confidential information includes:

Category	Examples
Member Information	Names, addresses, insurance details
Healthcare Information	Medical records and protected health information
Financial Information	Claims data, payments, company financial reports
Business Information	Strategies, contracts, internal processes
Employee Information	Payroll and personnel records

Handling Confidential Information

Employees must:

- Access information only when required for job duties
- Store information using approved systems
- Share information only with authorized individuals
- Protect printed documents
- Report accidental disclosure

Employees must not:

- Email confidential data to personal accounts
- Store company information on unauthorized devices
- Discuss sensitive information in public areas
- Share passwords or access credentials

Confidentiality After Employment

Confidentiality obligations continue after employment ends.

Former employees must return all company property and permanently remove company information from personal devices or storage locations.

Business Travel and Expense Reimbursement

Acme Health Insurance reimburses employees for reasonable and necessary business expenses incurred while performing company responsibilities.

Employees must follow company travel guidelines and obtain required approvals before spending company funds.

Travel Approval Process

Employees requesting business travel must:

1. Obtain manager approval
2. Confirm business purpose
3. Review travel requirements
4. Submit expenses after completion

Expense Category	Approval Requirement
Airfare	Manager approval before booking
Hotel	Must follow company travel limits
Rental Vehicle	Business justification required
Meals	Reasonable business expenses only

Expense Category	Approval Requirement
Transportation	Receipts required when applicable

Expense Submission Requirements

Employees must submit reimbursement requests within 30 days of the expense date.

Expense submissions must include:

- Business purpose
- Date of expense
- Amount
- Receipt documentation
- Manager approval

Incorrect or incomplete expense reports may delay reimbursement.

Prohibited Expenses

The company does not reimburse:

- Personal purchases
- Fines or penalties
- Alcohol expenses unrelated to approved business events
- Expenses without business justification
- Unauthorized upgrades

Corrective Action Policy

Acme Health Insurance uses corrective action processes to address performance concerns, policy violations, and workplace issues.

The goal of corrective action is to help employees understand expectations and improve performance when possible.

Corrective actions may include:

Action	Description
Coaching	Informal discussion to address concerns
Written Warning	Formal documentation of an issue
Final Warning	Serious corrective action before termination
Termination	End of employment relationship

The company may adjust the corrective action process depending on the severity of the situation.

Examples of Policy Violations

Examples may include:

- Violating security requirements
- Misusing company resources
- Harassment or discrimination
- Falsifying records
- Breaching confidentiality obligations
- Failure to meet job expectations

Investigation Process

When concerns are reported, the company may conduct an investigation.

Investigations may include:

- Reviewing available information
- Interviewing involved individuals
- Consulting relevant departments
- Determining appropriate actions

Employees are expected to cooperate honestly during investigations.

Separation of Employment

Employment with Acme Health Insurance may end through voluntary resignation, retirement, or company-initiated separation.

Resignation Process

Employees choosing to resign should provide written notice to their manager.

Employees should:

- Complete transition activities
- Return company property
- Transfer relevant information
- Complete required exit procedures

Company Property Return

Employees leaving the company must return:

- Computers
- Mobile devices
- Identification badges
- Documents
- Equipment
- Access credentials

Failure to return company property may result in additional action.

Final Pay and Benefits

Final pay and benefit information will be provided according to applicable laws and company procedures.

Employees should update personal contact information to ensure delivery of required documents.

Frequently Asked Questions

How do I request PTO?

Employees can submit PTO requests through the HR Self-Service Portal:

https://portal.acmehealth.com

Requests should be submitted in advance whenever possible.

Where can I find benefit information?

Benefit details are available through:

https://benefits.acmehealth.com

Who should I contact for security concerns?

Security issues should be reported through:

https://security.acmehealth.com

Can I work remotely from another country?

International remote work requires prior approval from Human Resources, Information Security, and the employee's manager. Employees must comply with applicable tax, legal, and security requirements.

How do I report workplace concerns?

Employees may report concerns through:

- Their manager
- Human Resources
- Compliance Office
- Ethics reporting system

What should I do if I lose my company laptop?

Immediately contact the IT Service Desk and Information Security team. Do not attempt to remove company information or investigate the incident independently.

Appendix: Employee Resources

Resource	Purpose
HR Self-Service Portal	Employee records, PTO, payroll
Benefits Portal	Insurance and retirement information

Resource	Purpose
Learning Center	Training programs and certifications
Security Portal	Cybersecurity guidance
IT Service Desk	Technical support

Document Updates

Employees should regularly review updated versions of this handbook through the HR Self-Service Portal.

The current approved version is maintained by the Human Resources Department.